WILMINGTON POST

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as Second Class Matter.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Eight (8) lines, Nonpareil type, constitute a square.

Fifty cents per line for the first insertion and twenty-five cents per line for each additional insertion.

All advertisements will be charged at the above rates, except on special contracts.

The subscription price to THE WILMINGTON POST is $2 00 per year; six months $1 00.

All communications on busines must be addressed to THE WILMINGTON POST, Wilmington, N. C.

THE POST ANNOUNCEMENT.

This paper will not be sent in future to any except to those who pay in advance for it. We find it so hard to collect back subscriptions that we are compelled to follow the rule long since laid down by other papers, to send only to paying subscribers, or to those who are willing to pay in advance for it. Send in your money and you can get the POST, not otherwise. One dollar will pay for the POST six months, two dollars for twelve months. No less than six months time received.

SETTLE HIM.

The Fitze John Porter case is still before Congress, and has been for the past twenty years. He was Court Marshaled in 1862 and dismissed from the United States army for disobedience of orders and supposed disloyalty to the United States Government, and ever since that time his case has been before Congress. General Grant now favors him being put back in the army, while General and new Senator Logan is fighting him and it is very likely Logan's great ability will defeat Porter for the present.

CHEAP POSTAGE.

The Presidents recommendation to reduce postage on letters to two cents bids fair to pass this session of Congress. Tho the able representative from Texas, Mr. Reagan, is opposed to the bill. We favor cheap postage, and we hope the bill will pass, with an amendment to send all newspapers through the mails free. Everybody takes a newspaper or ought too, and this way of paying postage, is a useless piece of business. The Government should encourage the people to take the papers, and the only way that can be done, is by sending them free of postage. The poor editor sends them free of subscription and then has to pay postage. The government should loose the postage if the editor looses his subscription.

THAT LITTLE OFFICE.

The selection of a Superintendent for the Morgauton Insane Asylum aroused a good deal of excitement in certain circles last week. We printed last week the list of Directors appointed by Gov. Jarvis. They were all good men (five of them being subscribers of the Farmer & Mechanic,) but as they were closely intimate with Jarvis, the public assumed that his hint would control the selection. Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of Pender, was supposed to have a good showing, as in addition to having a reputation for administrative ability in hospital management, he has a stack of endorsements a foot thick headed by Surgeon-General (of the Confederacy) Moore, and about a thousand other medical men, and above all, had made himself conspicuous as a supporter of Jarvis when the latter was pipe laying for the Governorship two years ago.

Well, but upon arriving in Raleigh, Dr Satchwell early perceived that official favor leaned towards our estimable townsman, Dr. Richard B. Haywood, whose election would have given gratification to a large number of friends all over the state.

It happened, however, that while consultations were in progress a telegram arrived from Morganton, stating that balloting had begun, or was about to begin, and that Dr. W. R. Capeheart was unable to attend, and Dr. Whitehead and Dr. J. C. Walker were sick,—the latter having declined the Directorship owing to the state of his health. A telegram was instantly returned asking if the election could not be stayed off in some way until Jarvis could send a new Director to take Dr. Walker's place. It was too late. A majority of the Board was present, and Dr. Murphy, formerly of New Hanover, was elected.

We clip the above from the Farmer & Mechanic of Raleigh: Dr. Satchwell had the recommendations of almost the entire Medical fraternity of his section and the state at large, and no man in Eastern North Carolina, did more to elect Gov. Jarvis than did he. Yet Jarvis organized the board against him and he was sacrificed. It is said that Jarvis had given Dr. S. to understand that he was the choice of him, (Jarvis) who at the last moment, sold out his old supporter.

EDITOR.

Mr. W. E. Gladstone has resigned the Chancelorship of the exchequer, of the English ministry, and the Right Hon. Hugh C. Childers, Secretary of War, has been appointed. Mr. Gladstone has been in public life for over 50 years.

Col. O. H. Blocker, one of North Carolina's noblemen; one of the biggest hearted men in the state, and a friend as true as steel, was in the city several days during the past week. Col. B. is looking after his land speculations and is giving all of his time to private business.

James Vick.—From the appearance of Vick's Floral Guide, which is on our desk, we should judge that the young Vicks are "chips of the old block," as the Floral Guide with its lithographed cover is handsome enough for the parlor table. It is printed on the best of paper, has three colored plates of Flowers and Vegetables, and full of useful information. Those who send 10 cents for it cannot be disappointed, as the plates alone are worth the amount. Address, as in past years, JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y.

On Friday evening of last week, a personal difficulty occured in Lexington, in Davidson county, between Gen. James M. Leach and a Mr. Heitman, which resulted in Heitman's attempting to shoot Leach, but bystanders prevented it. The next day J. M. Leach, Jr., took a shot gun and went in search of Heitman, and the two meeting, an exchange of shots was had, Heitman using a pistol. Feitman was wounded in the head and breast, but not seriously, and Leach escaped unhurt. Leach was arrested and bound in a bond of $500.—Exchange.

General Leach and his boys will all fight, and the fellows who fool with them had better have their lives well insured for the benefit of their poor relations.

A Young Widow.

General W. H. Neal, 84 years of age was married on Thursday to Mrs. Martha D. Williamson, 60 years old.—Charlotte Journal.

To The City Subscribers.

R. R. Pennington.

Our readers will recollect that last summer the Post Master at Rocky Mount, N. C., Mr. L. R. Pennington, was charged with robbing the mails. He was arrested and bound over to the Circuit Court, and last week he was tried. The trial lasting five days and on Friday he was acquitted.

Railway Tracking in North Carolina.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 14th.—Arrangements looking to an amicable adjustment of the differences between the Atlantic and North Carolina Railway company and its lessee, the Midland North Carolina Railway company, having failed, the directors of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railway company today made a formal demand for possession of the leased road, which was refused by the directors of the Midland company. Litigation will probably ensue.

Navassa Guano Company.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Navassa Guano Company of Wilmington was held at their office in this city on Thursday the 14th inst.

Mr. Bob. R. Calder acted as chairman, and Mr. Donald McRae Secretary. A majority of the stock was represented.

The following officers were all unanimously elected for the ensuing year:

Hon. R. R. Bridgers, President.

Donald McRae, Secretary and Treasurer.

Col. C. L. Graffin, Superintendent.

Col. W. L. DeRosset, Superintendent of Agencies.

Directors—R. R. Bridgers, John C. Graffin, Edward Kidder, Walter E. Lawton, Smith A. Gregg, Winfield S. Dunan and Donald McRae.

A dividend of 10 per cent. was declared out of the profits of the business, and 2 per cent. out of about of their rice business for the past year, payable on or before 1st January, 1883, to stockholders of record of the 17th instant.

The Company is very prosperous, and the re-election of all the old officers is a very just compliment; they are one and all, among our very best business men and have made the Company what it is to-day—the most prosperous in the state. We want more such enterprises under the management of just such gentlemen.

The Longest Blood Hyde Given by a Colored Man in North Carolina.

At the last county election Mr. Owen Burney an old and highly respected citizen of this county, was elected Treasury, almost unanimously by the people. Mr. Burney is a colored man, was the slave before the war, of Ex Sheriff Fennel, now of Sampson county. He acted as jailer for many years for the Sheriff, and after the war he accepted the position of Deputy Sheriff, for two years. He was then in 1869 appointed to one Inspectorship in the Custom House, which position he held until Thursday last, when he resigned to take charge of the office of county Treasury. He having qualified by giving a justified bond of $70,000, with five gentlemen as sureties, who are worth at least a half a million dollars. This is the largest bond ever given by a colored man in this state, and shows what a man of high character can do, tho he be a colored man. Mr. Burney has held many responsible positions since the war, but refused to. He was Alderman of the city for some years. All of these places he has filled the entire satisfaction of the citizens. We congratulate Mr. Burney, as well as the whole colored people of the state, on the esteem in the matter. Treasury Harris turned over to Mr. Burney $94,000.

Thanks to Surg. General J. B. Hamilton, of the Marine Hospital Service, for a copy of his report for the year ending, 31st July, 1882. And we congratulate him, on the very excellent showing therein made. We hope Congress will pass a law putting this service on a more permanent basis than it now is. The National Board of Health should be abolished and the money given to the Marine Hospital Service, everything should be done that is possible to make this Service even more effective. It has been for many years excised ingly well managed, and we hope to see it still further improved.

We congratulate Dr. Fairfax Taylor on the fact that Dr. Hamilton's report shows that the Wilmington Hospital has been better managed than any in the country, the percentage of deaths has been less according to the number admitted to the Hospital, also the average number of days of the sailors remaining in the Hospital has been much less than at any other in the service.

The New York Times says:

Mr. Brown, of Georgia, has all the unqualified candor for which the sunny south is famous. He would like to wait for civil service reform until the Democrats have had a chance to get a fair share of the spoils. If Mr. Brown's party adopts this view and acts upon it, the reform will be postponed to the Greek Kalends, for the people, having turned the Republican party out of Congress for neglecting reform, will not put a Democrat in the White House to do the same thing. What Mr. Brown so frankly admits to be his motive will be the real motive for much more indirect opposition to the reform. But the Senate has fairly taken up the Pendleton bill, and the debate upon it will be watched with the greatest possible care by the whole country. The positions of the several Senators will be understood, for the work of education, thanks to the reform associations, has been much more thorough and extended than the politicians imagine, and mere platitudes or pretenses will not satisfy the public mind, and evasions will be readily detected.

The report made by Mr. Bingham, of the House Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads, which recommends the Anderson bill for reducing postage on letters now sent for 3 cents to 2 cents, comprises an elaborate review of Post Office statistics in regard to rates of postage, and takes the ground that, with a surplus of revenue in the Treasury as well as a reported surplus from the Post Office Department, this is the proper time to effect a reduction in rates, as it can well be afforded. This surplus revenue from the Post Office Department is the first reported since the three cent rate was adopted in 1851, with one exception, which was in 1865, when there was a slight profit owing to a suspension of mail-carrying in the southern states. The report explains that while it is, of course, desirable that the department shall be self-sustaining, it was never intended that it should become a source of revenue. It assumes that the department is now on a surely paying basis, with its principal item of cost—that of transportation—gradually growing less as the population becomes more evenly distributed, and the means of communication more extended. The statistics are taken from a date as far back as 1793, when the rate for carrying a letter was 6 cents for a distance of 30 miles, and 25 cents for 450 miles. There is also a careful estimate based on the history of reductions in the past, which sustains the theory of the report that the stimulus to letter writing which would naturally be caused by a reduction, would greatly lessen the estimated loss for the first year, which (not counting such increase of letters) would only reach $8,000,000. The entire loss, the report assumes, could be offset by a fair allowance for carrying the official mail matter of the Government. It is also estimated that should the reduction not take effect until Jan. 1, 1884, as provided in the amended Anderson bill, the surplus of the first half of that financial year would balance the loss of the last half and there would be ample time to exhaust or call in the printed supply of Government stamped three-cent envelopes. Calculations are made from which it appears that the surplus of the Post Office Department in 1883 will be fully doubled in 1883. It is suggested, in closing the report, that when the loss experienced by this reduction shall be fully made up, and when there shall again be a surplus, a reduction of postage on drop letters should be made.

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE

I refer to the certificates below to show what I have already done with this most remarkable medicine.

PROF. W. H. MOORE.

Weldon, N. C.

Craven, Co., October 15, 1881.

Prof. Wm. H. Moore—Dear Sir—This is what I have to say. I have been suffering with a very large wen on the back of my neck. I suffered, oh! how I suffered; the pain it gave me no mortal man can tell. For 20 years I went in this condition. I could not even get on my knees to pray. I had to sit up in my chair. My owners, to whom I belonged, tried every physician that was around, but found no relief. Afterwards they consulted it was incurable. Hearing of the new Dr. Wm. H. Moore, I thought I would try once more, and I did so, and can get on my knees now as good ever. It has gone entirely and I am now well as ever.

Goldsboro, N. C., Dec. 12, 1881.

To the Public—This is to certify that I had a very bad leg, cut clear to the bone. The cut was two and a half inches deep; my leg was so swollen it was impossible for me to get about, in fact, I could not walk. The Doctor and many of my friends said my leg would have to be amputated. Of course, that I resisted. So hearing of the healing of Prof. Wm. H. Moore, I sent for him to examined my leg and see what he could do for it. He told me he would make a permanent cure in a month's time, without pain, an operation, or scaring. He has cured my leg as sound as ever, by using his celebrated medicines named O. K. Liniment, Tree of Life, Willing Salve. And beyond the shadow of a doubt it is the best medicine I have ever taken in my life. It kills all the pain in the human system. I recommend it as being all that it is claimed to be.

H. J. DESMOND.

CARTERET COUNTY.

Beaufort, N. C., Dec. 1, 1881.

Prof. Wm. H. Moore—Dear Sir—Having used your O. K. Liniment successfully for the last six months, and also several others spoke of it in high terms of praise, I feel justified in recommending it to the public as O. K.

Respectfully,

JAMES E. JOSLIN,

Sheriff of Carteret Co.

GIVEN UP TO DIE BY HER FRIENDS

SCALD HEAD AND SCROFULA.

Tarboro, Edgecombe County N. C., April 15th, 1882.

In my young days I was wild and careless and became the victim of a loathsome disease; I was treated by eminent physicians, and used various patent medicines, all to no purpose, I had ulcers in my throat and mouth, and on different parts of my body. I could not use my hands nor feet. I also became afflicted with the Rheumatism, and I employed different physicians of the Town, and at last I used Prof. Wm. H. Moore's O. K. Liniment, Tree of Life & Liver and Kidney Pills and Willing Salve, and Fever Mixture and I am now entirely well. I was badly worn'ed with the above diseases over seven years, and many persons told me not to use Prof. W. H. Moore's remedies; but I heeded them not, and now I gladly recommend his medicines as sure cure for all similar diseases. I am as well now as ever before.

LUCY HILLIARD.

Witness, F. D. Dancy, Maybr. J. H. Dancy.

Craven Co., August 27, 1881.

Prof. Wm. H. Moore—Dear Sir.—This is to certify that I suffered for two years with roaring in the head, and also toothache. I tried everything that I was told to try, or that I could think of, but found no relief, nor the slightest relief. Hearing of Prof. Wm. H. Moore's great remedies, I referred to him immediately. I can say now that I am well and clear of the disease as ever.

REV. JOSEPH GREEN.

[Cure of bad ulcer on the face]

Wilmington, N. C., Feb. 15th, 1881.

Prof. Wm. H. Moore—Dear Sir—I think it a duty I owe to you and my fellow creatures who are suffering, to make known the wonderful effects your medicines have had on me, hoping all who are troubled with humor in their blood will give it a trial. I can confidently say from experience that if persons will follow the directions and give it a fair trial, that it will cure any one that has disease of the character I suffered with Scrofula for 10 years; the pain it gave me no mortal man knows. I was in despair, and indeed thought I would die. I did not use every remedy, and let any man, that was the very one that would cure me. But at last the angel appeared in your great medicines, and I am most happy to state that your medicines have done the work for me. It is the great blessing, and I am now as free from the disease as I was before I was taken with it.

(Signed) JOHN C. DAVIS.

Witness—J. C. MILLS, J. P.

Tarboro, N. C., March 2nd, 1881.

Prof. Wm. H. Moore—Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have been blind in both eyes for eighteen years, and also subject to fits for the same length of time. I tried all the doctors around here, and also several of either of the surrounding until Almighty God sent Prof. W. H. Moore to Tarboro. From the time he commenced working on me I commenced to get better, and now I have no fits at all, and I can see as well as ever one. I am well known in this county of Edgecombe.

MRS. ELIZABETH JOSLIN.

Witness, F. L. Hollis, Anthony Johnson, Rev. W. H. Thorne, Miss. W. P. Mallory, Principal colored Free School.

Hamilton, Martin Co., N. C., April 15th, 1882.

Dr. Moore,—This is to certify that I have been deaf for 35 years and by using your medicine for only one bottle, to hear fully better it caused me to hear again.

May God ever be with you.

Very Truly Yours,

ADRAN THOMPSON.

STAR ROUTE TRIALS.

Under the direction of the Attorney General the Star Route frauds are being thoroughly investigated and the parties prosecuted. If they are guilty we hope they will be convicted and properly punished, but if they are not guilty they should not be persecuted.

LOCAL SELF GOVERNMENT.

Will the Democratic party carry out its pledges to the people of the west, and give the people of the state local self government. If they do not, then the Republicans can make sure of one thing and that is, the west will send Republican members of the Legislature in 1884. The only reason they did not this time, was the Democrats pledged that they would change the present system of county government. Now less see if they will do it.

SPEAKS BAD FOR THE STATE.

We heard, a few days ago, a gentleman say that he purchased the right of way seven miles through the country for a Railroad in a certain county in this state and took deeds from seven different parties who could not read or write, all of whom had to make their marks to the deeds. Don't that show that the state has neglected its citizens? The people must be educated if the state is ever prosperous, and the Government should see that they are educated.

EDUCATION.

If the good people of this state want national aid for our common schools, then they should at once petition to Congress to pass the Logan bill, which will appropriate about $100,000,000 for educational purposes of the country, about ten million of it to North Carolina. Don't hesitate if you want schools. If you want your children educated. If you want to see your children rise in the world and be men among men, then get up a petition and send to Congress praying the passage of the Logan bill.

SENATORIAL CONTEST.

The friends of Senator Dortch, of Wayne, are making a thorough and active canvass for the seat now occupied by Senator M. W. Ransom. The Raleigh News & Observer seems to be turning its columns in that direction. Of course Senator Ransom is very strong and will make a fight to retain his place. The only charges that the Dortch friends have yet brought against Ransom, is that he has been there for twelve years and ought to give away for some one else and that he voted for the Grant pension bill, they say nothing of his popularity in Washington what he has accomplished. The fight is waxing warm and bids fair to get up at fever heat very soon.

CIVIL SERVICE.

This subject has been creating considerable stur lately, by both the leading Republican and Democrat statesmen and it has finely come up before congress in such a shape, that each member of that body is compelled to put himself on the record. The President in his annual message to congress has recommended that the tenure of the subordinates of the different departments of the government shall be for a fixed term unless discharged for cause. Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, offered a bill which is generally approved by the members of congress and by the President. It is supported by such senators as Sherman, Logan, Hoar and Hale on the Republican side and Pendleton, Morgan and Bryant, on the Democratic side. The only opponents this civil service bill has yet found, have been on the Democratic side of the senate. Mr. Senator Brown, of Georgia, made a violent speech against the bill in which he was candid, ought to state that he wanted the matter to go over untill the next election to see if the Democratic party would not carry the country, in that case his party did not want to be bound by any such law, they would want to take control of the offices and not be prevented by any such law. Mr. Voorhees, of Indianna, another thorough Democrat, supported Mr Brown and it is believed at heart a large majority of the Democratic members are opposed to the bill. So it can be seen in this matter as at all times the Democratic party are not governed by right but by what they consider is their political interest.

Mr. Brown had just as well let the bill pass for it will be to regulate Republican appointments by a Republican administration for four years commencing the 4th of March, 1885. The people are satisfied that the Republican party and will never trust such men as Senator Brown to manage the affairs of the National Government.

"Education is the bulwark of Liberty."

WHAT'S EXPECTED.

Now that the election is over and Col. Green has been declared elected and he has a term of two years to represent the people of this, the Cape Fear District, we hope he will turn his attention towards the wants of the people of the District, thoroughly acquaint himself of the many place that need government aid, and when he takes his seat try and get as much done towards relieving them as possible.

We did everything within our power to prevent Col. Green's election, but now that he has got the certificate we shall do all within our power to give him information as to where he can best serve the whole people. We will be very glad if Col. Green will turn out to be a good and able representative. We need a man in Congress who will stand by the peoples interest and work all the time in their behalf. He is paid for that purpose, the $5,000 he gets is a fair salary, and from the 4th of March, 1883, to the 4th of March, 1885, Col. Green should consider his whole time as belonging to the Third District. If he will do so, and investigates their wants, cultivate the people regardless of politics and get all the information he can, we have no doubt but what he can accomplish much for them.

We need Light Houses. We need Life saving Stations. We need our rivers and harbors improved. We need a Court House and Post-Office building at Fayetteville, Wilmington and Beaufort. We need postal rates and Post-Offices throughout the District. The Cape Fear River should have a daily mail, and there are a great many other things we need that Col. Green can get for us, and we sincerely hope he will.

Wilmington Wrightsville and Onslow Railroad.

E. F. Martin informs us that there will be a meeting of the leading colored men of the state here on the 17th of January next, for the purpose of taking into consideration the construction of this railroad, from Wilmington to New River. He also says, he expects a very large attendance. This is the first enterprise of the kind ever started by a colored man, and his plan is to build the road by small contributions, from each colored man in the state. He says every colored man in the state will take 25 cents worth of stock, it will raise $25,000, which amount will construct the railroad, and no colored man will miss it. And yet the colored people will have a road, where colored men can be made skilled mechanics.

We hope the enterprise success, it is a great undertaking and a very big one for a colored man, but if the whole race will turn their attention to it, and give him the proper encouragement, the road will certainly be built, and when it is, it will be a credit to the negro of North Carolina. Every man in the state should encourage Mr. Martin. We want to see the colored people turning their attention to building up property, If they can by small contributions build a road 40 miles long, it will encourage them an other states and in a fews years you will find the negro working and laying up higmoney, educating his children and investing in railroads, banks, &c, &c., which willbe a grand day for the south.

THE GREATEST ENTERPRISE.

The Wilson News says the greatest enterprise ever started by the colored people of the Old North State, is the Wilmington, Wrightsville and Onslow Railroad, under the management of E. F. Martin, Esqr., one of our most energetic men, and one who in business does not recognize the word fail.

The road has been graded, the hands are now at work, four miles are ready for the cross-ties and iron, and all that is is necessary to complete the road is aid. It is contemplated to build the road, as soon as the manager can secure sufficient aid to Sneeds' Ferry, in Onslow county, a distance of forty miles, and thence to Wrightsville Sound and New Berne. This enterprise should meet the sympathy and encouragement of every colored man and he should do all that he can for its success. There are no machine shops now open to the colored youth in which he can learn to be a machinist, and the success of this road would be the means of having colored machinists and engineers. While this enterprise does not touch us in this section directly, it will indirectly, and we can boast of having in our own state one of the greatest enterprises of any state and will show that we are living in a progressive age. By a united effort on the part of us, this road can be completed. The shares of stock in the road are put at $25 each, and as soon as the amount of $43,000 shall have been subscribed and paid in, the road will be at once built to Wrightsville Sound. We hope that the colored people generally will consider the advantage in the building of this road, and address at once the manager, E. F. Martin, Esq., Wilmington, N. C., and he will give you all the information desired. A meeting of the incorporators has been called to meet in the City Hall of Wilmington on the 17th day of January. It is hoped that all the incorporators will be present. All the newspapers in sympathy with this enterprise will please insert the notice of the meeting.

A DELEGATE SUBJECT.

Which the Republican National Committee Now Has Under Consideration.

Shall the People be Represented by States or Districts in 1884.

Suggestions Invited From Everybody Who Has Views on the Matter.

The Plans Already Under Consideration.

Our Mr. Canaday, being a member of the National Committee, respectfully requests the Republicans of the State to give the matter of representation, in the National Convention some attention, and invites their views concerning the same. He desires to truly represent the wishes of the Republicans of the State, and the only way he can possibly get at their wishes, is by letter or through the medium of the Republican press. The subject is one that he hopes the Republican papers will consider and give their news thereon. We publish the following from the National Republican concerning the subject:

The republican national committee, will, at its next meeting, to be held at the Arlington in this city on the 17th of January next, formulate a set of rules for the election of delegates to the next national convention, according to the terms of a resolution adopted by the committee in July, 1880. The Chicago convention clearly emphasized a precedent established four years before in Cincinnati in favor of district representation in the proper acceptance of the term, but it delegated to the national committee the duty of fixing upon a plan for securing a uniform system of electing delegates to future conventions in all the states. The committee invited suggestions on the subject, and at a meeting held in March, 1881, the question was taken up and discussed at length. Messrs. W. E. Chandler, Edward McPherson, and George C. Gorham, who had previously been appointed a subcommittee to receive and digest suggestions and communications for the parent committee's examination, had a conference, the result of which was the presentation of two propositions to the general committee.

MESSRS. M. PHERSON AND CHANDLER, submitted the following plan for calling the Republican national convention of 1884:

The Republican national convention of 1884 shall consist of four delegates-at-large from each state and two delegates from each congressional district, an additional delegate-at-large for each Republican senator in the then existing or next preceeding congress, and an additional district delegate for each Republican representative in such congress—all to be chosen at popular conventions in such manner as the Republicans of each state may determine, provided the delegates from each congressional district shall be the choice of the Republicans of that district, in a convention held within the district for that purpose.

The conventions within the states for the election of delegates to the national convention shall be held at least one month before the time for the meeting of the national convention. Notices of contests may be given to the national committe, accompanied by full printed statements of the grounds of contests, which shall also be made public, and preference in the order of hearing and determining contests shall be given by the convention, according to the dates of the reception of such notices and statements by the national committee.

submitted the following:

The Republican national convention of 1884 should consist of a number of delegates from each state equal to twice the number of its senators and representatives in congress; and the Republicans in each state, and others who will act with them, should direct the manner of choosing its delegates.

A proposition from

of Kansas, was also before the committee, providing for the composition of the convention under the operation of the following method:

First, each state shall be entitled to four delegates-at-large; second, each congressional district shall be entitled to one delegate; third, in addition to delegates-at-large each state shall be entitled to representation in proportion to its Republican vote—that is, one delegate for every 12,000 Republican votes polled for president in 1880, or or fraction of over one-half that number.

After a prolonged discussion the whole subject was consisting of Messrs. W. E. Chandler of New Hampshire; Thomas C. Platt, of New York; John M. Forbes, of Massachusetts; John A. Martin, of Kansas, and Chauncey I. Filley, of Missouri, with instructions to frame a report "in accordance with the order of the Republican national convention of 1880, to secure to the several congressional districts the right to elect their own delegates to the national convention of 1884," the language quoted being that used in the resolutions of instruction to the committee.

The members of the sub-committee have been in correspondence of late, and there has been between them as to the merits of the respective plans referred to them for consideration. Mr. Martin adheres to the opinion that the basis of apportionment proposed by him is the most equitable.

Another member makes in support of the Chandler-McPherson plan, but suggests the striking out of the words [illegible] publicans of the states and districts. The work is not of sufficient importance to bring out full conventions. If delegates-at-large are to be chosen by a state convention, and the same convention is to subdivide itself into district conventions, the selection of all these delegates will constitute an object sufficient to bring together a full convention where district representation will be fully secured.

The same gentleman is in favor of additional delegates, based upon Republican senators and representatives in congress, as the best practical method of giving a representation in convention in proportion to the Republican votes.

There appears to be such

among the members that it is not likely a meeting of the subcommittee will be called previous to the date fixed for a general meeting. All the difference of opinion, if any now exist, as to the best plan to be pursued to secure a truly representative Republican national convention in 1884, one which cannot be manipulated by any one man or combination of men in favor of a special class candidate, will be fully settled, and that, too, in a most amicable manner, when the committee comes together.

The committee, however, is not fully wedded to any special plan or scheme, and would be pleased to hear suggestions from Republicans on the important questions involved. Communications on the subject addressed to any member of the committee will receive due consideration.

An American Journalist in largely characterized by [illegible] the [illegible] professional [illegible] paper like the Hawkeye, the Free Press and Youth's Sittings, the witty dailies like the Boston Post the Courier Journal and New York Sun, and the legion generation like the Philadelphia Ledger, but North Carolina can boast of a paper which, without displaying any of the peculiarities of those above mentioned, furnishes more amusement to those who have a keen sense of the ludicrous than any of its cotemporaries. It is the Col. Sellers of our State press, a sort of Journalistic cross between Micawber and Mr. Pickwick, whose utter unconsciousness of being an object of amusement constitutes its chief attraction as a humorous paper.

Standing solitary and alone amidst its North Carolina cotemporaries, and antagonizing the judgement of the entire Democratic party in the state, including both Senators, all of the Congressmen, the Executive, Legislative and Judicial Departments, the Democratic newspapers, and nine-tenths of the Democratic voters, it utters its dicta upon the great political-economical questions of the day with a serene self confidence, and a contemptuous indifference to the opinions of its cotemporaries, and the rest of mankind—and pooh-poohs any suggestion of a possible error of judgment on its part with a lofty sense of superiority which is enough to make a tombstone split with hilarity.

The Journal, possibly laboring under the delus on that it was entitled to an opinion upon public questions ventured to coincide with the prevailing sentiment of the Democrats of the State, and respectfully pointed out what it conceived to be the false reasoning—based upon wrong premises and leading to confessed but erroneous conclusions—of the Observer has referred to the Wilmington Star, whereupon that amusing cotemporary lofully declines to gratify the ambition which it attributes to the Journal, of engaging it in a controversy, and declares its inability to waste its valuable time and space in noticing the "rambling talk" and "flippant" essays of the Journal. Nor do others of our cotemporaries fare any better at the hands of the Star. "We have," says that sheet daily, "no less than five paragraphs from five separate papers, all waiting a reply. If we undertake to amuse the public by such controversies we have to abandon other, and to us more important, duties," &c. We tender our sympathy to the other four "separate papers, which are thus to be kept in a state of painful anxiety and suspense, and likewise to the public which must be denied the amusement which we would have enjoyed except for the important duties which demand the attention of the Star. It is hard on the five aspiring papers which pine for notice at the hands of the Star, and avail to the public who are trying to be amused by their paper, but they have the consolation of knowing that if the Star will not notice them by a "paragraph" it will notice them by a "column," for we understand quantity of [illegible] is the [illegible] way.—Charlotte Observer.

He said [illegible] the bodies of De Long, the doctor, Ah Sam, and two others were recovered and removed to Matsu, digging in the snow was resumed and Mr. Collin's body was found. His face was covered with a pair of red drawers. Both wrists and Bartlett were always good friends of Collins, and great pains were taken to secure all his papers. On April 1, all the bodies having been found, Nindemann was set to work to make a box large enough to hold ten bodies. Boards were taken for that purpose from an old scow on the river bank. The clothing of the dead was carefully examined again to see if any [illegible] which should be taken.

On opening his shirt, however, Bartlett found a large bronze cross. They didn't know what to do with it, and asked Melvill's advice. He said that it was part of his religion, and thought it best to leave the cross on his bosom. The witness said he was [illegible] looking for records which De Long had left in a hut, when the body were buried. He then described the unsuccessful hunt for Lieut. Chipp's party. ONE OF DE LONG'S STORYS

One of the most interesting papers found among De Long's effects was read to the board on Saturday. It was a formal report of De Long assuring Mr. Collins to the secretary of the navy dated March 29, 1881, based evidently upon the following memorandum, which was written by De Long December 2, 1880: "My order in relation to daily exercise requires everybody (except the sick and the men on watch) to leave the ship at 11 a. m. and remain out of her on the ice until 1 p. m. Of course it has been understood that Mr. Collins should come on board at noon to make and record the meteorological observations for that hour, but I have observed on several occasions of late that he was used to remain on board much longer. To-day, at 12:20 p. m., I went into the cabin to see why he remained so long, and at the same time to close my air port, and found that he had removed his coat, had lighted and was smoking his pipe, and, while writing in the port chart room, was carrying on a conversation with Mr. Danenhower. I said nothing and returned to the ice. At 12:20 p. m., as he had not yet come out, I went again to the cabin and found him at the stove, adjusting his gloves and continuing the conversation before referred to. The following is the substance of an evening talk. I said:

"Mr. Collins, has it required all this time to make and record the 12 o'clock observations?"

He replied: "Well, sir, I hardly know the meaning of your question."

I said, "The meaning of my question is this: Is it necessary for you in order to make and record the 12 o'clock observations, to remove your coat, light your pipe, engage in conversation with Mr. Danenhower, and remain the cabin until 12:20 p. m.?"

He answered curtly, "Well, perhaps I might have done [illegible], but I did not know my minutes were counted for me."

I said in substance, "I have been to issue an order that everybody should go on deck from 11 to 1, and your coming in the cabin and remaining until 12:20 is a violation of my order that I will neither submit to nor permit you to continue. I have noticed for several days that you remain longer than necessary for taking the usual observations and to-day I am called myself on this subject."

He replied, "Oh, very well, if you are [illegible] of course I have nothing to say. I was not aware for I did not know it was necessary to follow the [illegible]."

I asked, "Will you stand by [illegible]?"

He said, "I mean that in taking me to [illegible] you are doing me a great injustice."

After carrying on a short conversation [illegible] Lieut. De Long said, saying, "This is quite unusual. Conversation of this kind [illegible] cannot be chronicled in the log book, but [illegible] the records of the vessel to the United States [illegible] navy. [illegible] I shall report you to the secretary of the navy. Meanwhile, you will please to duty [illegible] the [illegible] considering the [illegible] order of September 1."

"Throughout the whole interview," Lieut. De Long continues, "Mr. Collins was curt, contemptuous, and disrespectful in both language and bearing, the manner of his answering being more offensive than his words. Instead of making possible replies to my questions and proper explanations of the violation of my order, he arraigned me for the manner in which the questions were put and contradicted me flatly when I said he had violated my order [illegible]. Mr. Danenhower, who left the cabin at my first question, was in his room, necessarily in a position to hear the conversation, and I notified him that I should refer to him as a witness. He volunteered his willingness to have a written statement of the occurrence made for his signature while it was fresh in his memory, and I, therefore, requested Lieut. Chipp to write such a statement from dictation, as Mr. Danenhower's eyes, of course, prevented him from doing so himself."

WHAT COLLINS'S BROTHER SAYS

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Dec. 9.—Dr. Collins says no charge in De Long's memoranda is of the slightest importance, except as viewed through naval spectacles. It was to bring these complaints out and show their triviality that the doctor published his brother's letter. The charges are part of De Long's efforts to suppress Danenhower. The latter are new facts and should reveal them on the witness stand.

BIG FIRES.

Last week a $15,000,000 fire took place in London. This week $30,000,000 worth of property has been destroyed by fire, in Kingston, Jamaica. Making in two risks upwards of forty-five million dollars worth of property burned. This will make insurance companies shakey for a while.

Telegrams states:

A THIRTY MILLION DOLLAR FIRE.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—The following dispatch has been received here from Kingston, Jamaica, to-day. "The business quarter of Kingston was burned yesterday. The loss is £6,000,000 sterling. Hundreds are homeless. Wharves warehouses, stores, banks, and supplies are gone. Food supplies are needed. Charitable relief should be sent to W. K. Azbill, secretary Kingston charity organization."

The Eastern Reflector says: "A young negro man whose name we did not learn came to his death at Bell's Ferry last week in a most remarkable manner. Some hands were packing cotton at the gin then, and this boy having drank too much whiskey during the day, was told by them to go off and go to sleep. He disappeared and it was thought that he had gone home. When the bale of cotton which was in the press was packed and the ties were being put on, the men were astonished to see a shoe and a hand stick out of the side of the bale, and on examination they found the boy in the cotton, dead. His skull was crused and one arm was broken. It is thought that the boy fell into the press when he went to put his last turn of cotton, and as he had drank a quart of whiskey not long before, he was too drunk to get out or make any outcry, and the others not knowing of his whereabouts put the remainder of the cotton on him and pressed him up in the bale. He doubtless died from suffocation before the cotton was packed. The dead boy was an industrious and sober hand, never having been drunk before in his life. We doubt if there ever has been another such death in this country.

The latest estimate of the population of the world make a reduction of 20,000,000, the figures now being 1,433,837,560. Europe has 327,748,400; Asia 795,891,000; Africa 205,225,360; America 100,415,400; Australia, &c., 4,223,000; Polar regions 32,500; Great Britain has a population of 35,246,661, but the British Empire, India, &c., boasts 300,000,000; Holland has 4,060,580, but the Dutch possessions in the East 1,462,400 square miles, are peopled by 27,962,000 persons. China proper is credited with 360,000,000 with 20,000,000 more in her dependences; the desert of Sahara has a population of 2,500,000 and the Equatorial regions of Africa 47,000,000.

President Arthur Thanked.

The President has received a telegram from Thomas H. West, president of the St. Louis cotton exchange, as follows: "The St. Louis cotton exchange begs to return thanks to you for your prominent mention and kindly recommendations in behalf of the Mississippi river improvement." He has also received a telegram from Napoleon Hill, president of the Memphis cotton exchange, as follows: "The Memphis cotton exchange tenders sincere thanks for kindly expressions in your late message relative to Mississippi improvements. Your sympathy and aid are thoroughly appreciated by our people."

Many people from North Carolina are now residents of the west. For a century past this state has been a good one to immigrate from, and an equally good one to emigrate to. There are now visiting Guilford, Randolph, Forsyth, Stokes, Surry and Yadkin, about 200 Indian people, who were formerly of this state. They came on an excursion train, and most of them propose to prolong their visit to the Old North State until Christmas.—Reporter and Post.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE LEADING SCIENTISTS OF TO-DAY agree that most diseases are caused by disordered Kidneys or Liver. If, therefore, the Kidneys and Liver are kept in perfect order, perfect health will be the result. This truth has only been known a short time and for years people suffered great agony without being able to find relief. The discovery of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure marks a new era in the treatment of these troubles. Made from a simple tropical leaf of rare value, it contains just the elements necessary to nourish and invigorate both of these great organs, and safely restore and keep them in order. It is a POSITIVE remedy for all the diseases that cause pains in the lower part of the body—for Torpid Liver—Headaches—Jaundice—Dizziness—Gravel—Fever—Ague—Malarial Fever, and all difficulties of the Kidneys, Liver and Urinary Organs.

It is an excellent and safe remedy for females during Pregnancy. It will control Menstruation and is invaluable for Leucorrhœa or Falling of the Womb.

As a Blood Purifier it is unequaled, for it cures the organs that make the blood.

This Remedy, which has done such wonders, is put up in the LARGEST SIZED BOTTLE of any medicine upon the market, and is sold by Druggists and all dealers at $1.25 per bottle. For Diabetes, ask for WARNER'S SAFE DIABETES CURE. It is a POSITIVE REMEDY.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

ILLUSTRATED

HARPER'S MAGAZINE begins its sixty-sixth volume with the December Number. It is not only the most popular illustrated periodical in America and England, but also the largest in its scheme, the most beautiful in its appearance, and the best magazine for the home. A new novel, entitled "For the Major," by Constance Fenimore Woolson, the author of "Anne", was begun in the November Number. In literary and artistic excellence the Magazine improves with each excessive number. Special efforts have been made for the lighter entertainment of its readers through the humorous stories, sketches, &c.

Military Secretary—Daniel S. Lamont, of Albany.

The new staff will meet on Wednesday next at 8 o'clock, at the Everett House, New York.

John G. Farnsworth, the new Adju-General, is a wealthy lumber-dealer of Albany, is well connected, and about 50 years old. He served in the war as Chief Quartermaster of the Fourth Army Corps of the Army of the Potomac during 1862 and 1863. About 1863 4 he accompanied Quartermaster-General Meigs on a long inspection tour. In 1864 and 1865 he was Chief Quartermaster of the Department of West Virginia. Since the war he has been Colonel of tenth Regiment, N. G. S. Y. N.

Philip H. Briggs was appointed Assistant Inspector General on Gov. Lucius Robinson's staff, and when John P. Woodward became Adjutant-General Briggs was promoted to the position of Inspector-General.

George S. Field is President of the Central Bridge Company, of Buffalo, and an accomplished engineer. He has a wide acquaintance in New York City and elsewhere in the state, and is popular. He is about 40 years old.

Horatio C. King is the present Secretary of the Society of the Army of the Potomac and Junge Advocate of the Fourth Brigade.

Joseph D. Bryant is at present Surgeon-General of the Seventy first Regiment and had charge of the medical department of the camp of instruction at Peekskill.

G Barrett Rich is President of the Bank of Attica, in Buffalo, and Chief of Ordinance on the staff of Major-Gen. William F. Rogers. He is a Republican in politics, a man of excellent standing, and 36 years of age.

Austin Lanthrop is a partner of the Hon. C. C. B Walker in the hardware business in Corning and an extensive railroad contractor. He has been Supervisor of the town of Corning for nine years and President of Corning village for one year.

Charles F. Robbins is Regimental Inspector of Rifle Practice for the Seventh Regiment, with the rank of Captain.

Charles H. Utley is a wealthy and respected dealer in pianos in Buffalo, about 35 years old He is a Democrat, but supported Garfield in 1880.

George N. Burt is a lawyer of Oswego and was at one time Judge-Advocate of he Sixth Brigade.

Gen. Farnsworth has been in the city since Friday, but left this evening for the east. Daniel S. Lamont, of Albany, has not been in Buffalo over Sunday. He went east with Farnsworth.—N. Y. Times.

Testimonials.

Pender County, N. C., March 25th, 1882
Post-Office, Camera.

Mr. Morris—I carried your medicine home and gave it the evening that I received it. My hogs all got well. I am not afraid of losing hogs now if I can get your medicine I intend to keep a package at the H. S.

Respectfully, DAVIS JONES.

Duplin County, N. C., March 25th, 1882.
Po-t Office, Teacheys.

This cholera was raging in my neighborhood, and having heard of Mr. Morris' remedy I gave it according to directions, and it saved my hogs, they are all well. But before I gave the medicine my hogs began to fail—refusing to eat, getting very poor, hair standing straight, and drawn up and vomiting. It is a great remedy.

W. D. TEACHEY.

Rockfish Township, Duplin Co., N. C. April 10, 1882. P. O. Teacheys.

I am glad to say that Morris' Vegetable Compound is a good medicine for the mange and cholera. My hogs were looking very bad, and some of them would not eat, and I gave the medicine according to direction and in a few days I could see that they were mending; my hogs are well, and I think that I can recommend it to farmers as a great medicine. W. J. WEST.

Wallace, N. C., April 20th, 1882.

My hogs were taken sick with vomiting with every symptom of hog cholera, and I applied to A. H. Morris, of Teacheys and obtained his medicine and gave it according to directions, and I will say that my hogs all improved and are doing well and none of them died. I believe it to be a good remedy for sick hogs.

T. W. N. ELLSWORTH.

Teacheys, N. C., April 20th, 1882.

I had a hog that had been lingering for six or eight months; would neither thrive nor die, his hair standing straight his head down and in a very bad condition I gave him medicine that I received from Mr. A. H. Morris, and he improved rapidly and is now a good hog and doing well. I am satisfied that it is a good medicine for hogs.

G. S. McMILLAN.

Duplin County, N. C. May 4th, 1882.

My hogs and also my father's hogs were dying up with the cholera and we sent and bought a package of Morris' Compound and gave it as directed, and our hogs all got well with the exception of one that was too far gone when we got it, the rest are all well at this time. It is certainly a good remedy for hog cholera.

D. W. TURNER, Jr.

Magnolia, N. C., May 6th, 1882.

Mr. A. H. Morris—Dear sir—My stock of hogs had been on the decline for several years, until a few weeks ago when I obtained some of your medicine for Hog Cholera. Being away from home myself, my son gave it to the hogs as directed, and on my return home this week I find my sows pig and sheats all much improved. I am fully satisfied that it is a good medicine, and will if properly used by our farmers, result in great good to the country.

Respectfully, J. W. TAYLOR.
